VOTER REGISTRATION CHALLENGE FORM REASON FOR CHALLENGE

Check the appropriate box below and mail or bring to the King County Elections Office:

- The individual challenged is not a U.S. Citizen.
- The individual challenged is not at least eighteen years old.
- The individual challenged is currently being denied his or her civil rights by reason of a felony conviction.
- The individual challenged has been judicially declared mentally incompetent.
- The individual challenged does not reside at the address at which he or she is registered to vote. Under Article VI, section 4, of the Washington State Constitution, a voting residence is not lost if the person is absent due to state or federal employment, military service, school attendance, confinement in prison, or engaged in navigation at sea. State law requires the person filing the challenge to provide the address at which the challenged voter actually resides:

Voter Registration Address

Actual Address

The individual challenged is registered at an address that is not a "valid residence address" as required by RCW 29A.08.110(1). The registration address is not a location at which the voter could "have lived in the state, county, and precinct thirty days immediately preceding the election" as required by Article VI, section 1 of the Washington Constitution.

Please describe the factual basis for the voter registration challenge (use additional sheets if necessary):

Voter is registered to vote at an address that is not a physical residence.

AFFIDAVIT OF CHALLENGER

I, Lori D. Sotelo declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington that I am a registered voter in the State of Washington and that I hereby challenge the voter registration of ADRION R ROOT with registration # 990688385 whose registered address is 13110 NE 177TH PL. I have personal knowledge and belief that this person is not qualified to vote, or does not reside at the address given on his or her voter registration record and is also not protected by the provisions of Article VI, section 4, of the Washington State Constitution.
